THREE-BAND CONCERT IS OCT. 11
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

A concert featuring three bands--Commander Cody and His Lost Planet Airmen, Pure Prairie League and The New Riders of Purple Sage--will be presented by the Program Council of the Associated Students of the University of Montana at 8 p.m. Oct. 11 in the University Center Ballroom.

The Commander Cody group, which received the "Most Promising Vocal Group" award in the 1972 Record World country/<sup>competition</sup> has had a number of hits, including "Lost In The Ozone" and "Hot Rod Lincoln." It was voted the top U.S. group in 1974 in the Billboard country survey.

Pure Prairie League is continuing to grow in popularity, and The New Riders of the Purple Sage is a group which has included such performers as Jerry Garcia of the Grateful Dead.

Tickets are /<sup>available</sup> by mail from the University Center Ticket Office, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801. Team Electronics and the Missoula Mercantile Record Shop also have tickets. Admission is $5 for students and $5.50 for the general public if tickets are purchased in advance. Admission will be $6 for all persons at the door Oct. 11.
